“The greatest musical of all time finally gets a revolution.”

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – LES MIZ AND FRIENDS! A PUPPET PARODY announces its production at the Hudson Theatres Mainstage for April and May. Both a loving tribute and a brutal deconstruction of the Broadway classic, the musical follows a group of foul-mouthed puppets who interrupt a human production of LES MISÈRABLES and decide to throw a revolution of their own.

Written and directed by comedy partners Nathan Makaryk and Geneviève Flati—who double as the raucous Thenardiers—this irreverent parody lampoons every aspect of the famous musical, movie, and novel. A delight for both “Les Misérables”-enthusiasts and haters alike, LES MIZ AND FRIENDS! features new versions of classic songs, tons of improvisation and audience interaction. Can Javert and his human cast defend the sanctity of their show against the puppets’ mayhem, or will they succumb when the playful mirth turns deadly?

*“The show is at least twice as good as anything the Pythons or Second City ever cooked up.” –
